Hi Kevin

Thanks for confirming. Due to our CDPO being accredited by the PECB it is one of the few courses that you will have to wait 6-8 weeks for your exam results.

As we buy exams at cost from the PECB, if you fail then the exam fee will be chargeable.

The good news is that we have a certification guarantee so you can resit your course free of charge within 12 months. So I suggest, that if you are not ready to take your exam then retain it for next time and save yourself a bit of money!

Does that help?

Regards
Mike

Hi Kevin

Just to be clear, are you referring to our Certified data protection officer course?
